Join ROPE for a quiet paddle on Armand Bayou southwest of campus. After arriving and taking a practice spin to familiarize ourselves on the kayaks we will head up the bayou where we are very likely to see alligators sunning themselves. ROPE will provide lunch, transportation, and equipment. Participants should eat breakfast prior to departure.

This trip is open to participants of all experience levels but the ability to swim is required.

Footwear with a heel is required.

Packing List:

- At least one water bottle, quart/liter-size
- Sneakers/Water shoes/Sandals – Your feet will be wet.
