

SUMMER YOUTH ACTIVITY PROGRAM COUNSELOR-IN-TRAINING APPLICATION

The goal of the Counselor-In-Training (CIT) program is to provide 13 to 16 year olds with the opportunity to develop personal skills, social responsibility, and the leadership skills that are necessary for them to act as role models for children younger than themselves. Each CIT will be partnered with bright and charismatic college-aged counselors, and will be assigned to a specific group for the duration of the session. Through hands-on experience, CITs will have the opportunity to work with counselors and instructors in the operation of the Summer Youth Activity Program. CITs will have an extensive amount of direct interaction with program participants and as such should be friendly and approachable.
